

A Primary Key uniquely identifies each record in a table.

A Foreign Key references a Primary Key in another table.

Normalization reduces redundancy and improves data integrity.

SQL stands for Structured Query Language.

An index improves query performance in a database.